

WARRANTIES FOR ELECTRONIC GOODS, CELL PHONES, COMPUTERS AND SIMILAR HIGH VALUED CARGO'S: -

- a. The packing and sealing of the containers must be photographed.
- b. Seal number to be recorded for cross-reference purposes. Upon arrival at destination seal numbers to be immediately checked & any discrepancy to be reported instantly.
- c. The insured subject matter must be pre-cleared at all times – applicable to sea & air sendings
- d. All flights are pre-booked & arrival times to be schedule so that it does not arrive over a weekend / public holidays
- e. Cargo to be uplifted within 6 hours upon discharge from aircraft / vessel
- f. Goods conveyed by sea or road are in FCL's or structural fully enclosed conveyances only.
- g. FCL's / structural fully enclosed conveyances must be fitted with security clamps upon completion of loading for Exports/Transits and upon discharge from over sea vessel for imports. FSI and TFP security clamps are required.
- h. Road carriers must be nominated and endorsed on the policy.
- i. Road Carriers must also have their conveyances fitted with cell phones with international roaming and with GPS satellite tracking and recovery systems fitted to horse and trailer/s and containers of which must be in working order at all times.
- j. Advertising on conveyances of the cargo being carried is disallowed.
- k. Professional armed security guards to accompany cargo from aircraft whilst on apron to Airport warehouse and/or Professional armed security guards to accompany cargo from port to final destination where values are in excess of R 1 000 000
- l. Professional armed security guards to accompany cargo for local distribution / deliveries where cargo value is in excess of R 350 000
- m. The road carriers must follow a prescribed route and each conveyance must have a minimum of 2 drivers.
- n. Where cargo is stored overnight at airport or port provided Insured / their agents have done all in their ability & matter is totally outside of their control it must be inside a Secure locked strong room for which only approved personnel have access & provided the premises have 24 hour armed guards & alarm response units on standby
- o. For storage at the insured's' premises it must be inside Secure locked strong room for which only approved personnel have access & provided the premises have 24 hour armed guards & professional alarm response units on standby.
- p. Also storage premises to be fully fenced in & with monitored / controlled access / exit and to comply to all the terms & conditions as prescribed by the Risk Assessment Managers